

Arborist

Garden
Center

Gardening
Services

Irrigation

Landscape
Design

Landscape
Installation

Nursery &
Greenhouse
Production

Landscape
Management
& Lawn Care

Careers in Horticulture can be some of the most rewarding employment you'll ever enjoy!

What We Do...

- Quite simply, LandLovers work with and for the land, and love what they do.
- When you step outside, virtually everything you see that isn't asphalt has been touched at some point by someone in the nursery and landscape industry.

4 Reasons To Consider This Career...

- Jobs galore - in every part of the country!
- Make a difference – tangible results/immediate satisfaction
- Show me the money – skilled professionals make an excellent living
- Enter through different channels – a high school diploma, a college degree, or on-the-job training are all entry points!

Good Skills To Have...

- mathematical and analytical skills
- environmental awareness
- creativity
- problem-solving skills
- enthusiasm for design
- technological savvy
- love for the outdoors
- an aspiration to help people
- the desire to work with your hands

Interested In Learning More ?

There are several colleges that offer degrees in the fields of nursery and landscaping:

- University of Idaho in Moscow
- College of Western Idaho in Boise
- BYU - Idaho in Rexburg
- College of Southern Idaho in Twin Falls